

ENGLISH

- I. General Education: Six semester hours (6 SH) that include ENG 2001 Introduction to writing Across the Curriculum* 3 (SH) and an additional three semester hour (3 SH) course identified with an asterisk (*) may be applied to satisfy General Education requirements.
- II. English Concentration Requirements18 SH
- A. ENG 2001 Introduction to Writing Across the Curriculum3 SH
- B. Six (6) semester hours of Literature Survey courses from the following must6 SH include courses from two groups (British, World, American). (Note: ENG 2030 World Literature is offered in the fall, ENG 2040 World Literature in the spring. All other courses listed are offered each regular term, usually in multiple sections. Check each year's summer schedule for summer school offerings, which may vary.)
- ENG 2010 English Literature3 SH
- OR ENG 2020 English Literature3 SH
- ENG 2030 World Literature*3 SH
- OR ENG 2040 World Literature*3 SH
- OR ENG 2050 Studies in British Literature*3 SH
- ENG 2120 African-American Literature3 SH
- OR ENG 2310 American Literature3 SH
- OR ENG 2320 American Literature3 SH
- OR ENG 2350 Studies in American Literature*3 SH
- B. Three (3) semester hours of Children or Adolescent Literature as listed3 SH
- ENG 4560 Adolescent Literature (Required for all Non-Elementary Education Majors)3 SH
- OR ENG 3240 World Literature for Children (Required for Elementary Education Majors)3 SH
- C. Six (6) semester hours from Language and Writing Courses6 SH
- ENG 3300 Applied Grammar3 SH
- ENG 3400 Advanced Expository Writing3 SH
- ENG 3450 Writing Center Theory and Practice3 SH
- ENG 3580 Teaching Composition: Combining Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy3 SH
- D. Three (3) semester hours in English elective courses chosen from the3 SH 3000/4000 level.

Students selecting an Academic Concentration in English should consult with an advisor in the College of Education. Such students are also welcome to bring questions about this concentration to the following persons in the Department of English: Dr. Mark Vogel (320 Sanford Hall; telephone 262-2892), Dr. Elaine O'Quinn (216 Sanford Hall; telephone 262-6894), and Chairperson of English Department (200 Sanford Hall; telephone 262-3098).