

The Janet W. Bloodgood Endowment for Reading & Children's Literature

This endowment was established in memory of Dr. Janet W. Bloodgood by her daughters Elena Bloodgood Grandy and Beth Bloodgood Ames and their families. Dr. Bloodgood served as an associate professor in the department of Language, Reading and Exceptionalities in the Reich College of Education at Appalachian State University.

The Janet W. Bloodgood Endowment will provide scholarships for full-time or part-time graduate students enrolled in the Master's of Reading Program and who demonstrate financial need. A $1,000 scholarship will be awarded beginning in the spring of 2008 and then in the fall of following academic years. From the endowment, $500 annually will also be earmarked for the purchase of materials and children's literature for the benefit of all students in the newly named Janet W. Bloodgood Reading Room located in the Reading Clinic in the Reich College of Education.
