

Rhododendron Society Nomination Form
Reich College of Education
Appalachian State University

The Rhododendron Society recognizes graduates of the Reich College of Education whose service to education as a teacher, librarian, human service professional or administrator has been remarkable and exemplary. Established in 1999, the University's centennial year, it is the highest honor given by the Reich College of Education. The award is presented to individuals each year at the Alumni Association's Black & Gold Reunion Luncheon, which is being held Saturday, July 28, 2007.
